If you are thinking of having an auction of your collection, LAND, or farm, let the experience of VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC work for you. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC has conducted auctions of collections, memorabilia, and more in over 17 states. Yvette VanDerBrink, owner of VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC not only brings her 17 years of experience, but also knowledge from growing up in the auto industry and as a collector herself. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC understands that your collection is important and meaningful to you.

VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC specializes in auctions of collector cars, parts, antique tractors, motorcycles, memorabilia, but also sells LAND/ farm sales and conducts auctions of all kinds. Yvette VanDerBrink realized the importance of getting classics in the hands of collectors and it was this understanding that brought her from selling older salvage yards and saving all that automotive history. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC has sold many private collections, liquidated museums, and many barn finds & survivors, projects, and loves those older salvage yards.

VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC works personally with all our sellers and develops a personalized auction plan for the collection. VanDerBrink Auctions has some of the lowest commissions. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC brings our excellent advertising and marketing skills and use of multi-media applications to work to obtain the best price auction day for your collection. We understand that the world is a big place and advertise so that everyone knows about your auction and your collection. The internet has increased visibility and VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC not only conducts your auction onsite, but online to increase bidders from around the world and in turn, more money. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC also can conduct your auction in an online only format. We work to develop an auction plan just for you. From a seated catalog auction to walking out in the field, or even a ballroom auction, we can work with you and your collection. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC has also been featured on several TV shows including a 3-hour Special on the History Channel and also on Fox Business. Who knows, maybe your auction will be featured next?

Yvette VanDerBrink, owner, says, "It's always fun to work with families to show them treasures that they have and the value of what their parents, spouse, or family has been saving or collecting. There are so many people that don't realize what they have until you bring it out in the sunlight." One of these instances was the now infamous, Lambrecht Chevrolet auction in Pierce, NE in 2013. Yvette worked with the family, and turned what they thought was a "not a big deal" into noted as #3 Most Earth Shattering Auctions in the World, according to Hemmings Motor News. Over 20,000 people ventured to a soybean field in this small town in Nebraska for a chance to see New Chevrolet cars and trucks that had been squirreled away by Mr. Ray Lambrecht. In the summer of 2017 VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC worked with the Hackenberger Collection in Ohio of over 700 vehicles that were rare, orphan, and unique vehicles. The auction was held at the Summit Motor Park in Norwalk, OH with a huge 80x220 tent, 3-10 ft. Digital Screens and a cataloged auction. The collection was sold over 2 days and bidders came from all over the world and was a huge success.

VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC brings our experience and understands that you have been collecting all your life and this is more than just a collection, but your 401K, for say, and they are part of you and your family. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC will work to turn your assets into money for you and your family. We also work with Trust departments, lawyers, and estates. We work to develop a legacy about that collector and bring that to the auction. When you are thinking of selling your collection, it's important to work with an auction company that has the experience and expertise that understands your collections and will work with you to obtain the most exposure and in turn best auction results.

VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC brings the world to your auction with the latest technology. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC has been conducting online and simulcast auctions since 2004 and this experience brings more bidders and in turn more money to your auction. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC has successfully conducted live and online auctions and found that this can bring an increase of almost 38% in realized prices. This also opens the doors to more chances for people to bid and buy part of your collection. The On-Line format, also allows us to work for sellers that have smaller collections, and can do in an On-Line Only format.

VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC has worked with many collections and sellers over the years. There has been so many memorable collections and like-wise memorable sellers. Every auction not only has the cars, parts, memorabilia, but also sellers. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC has worked with sellers to save their collections from County Tax or zoning problems to liquidating what seems like a daunting task. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC has also sold several collections that proceeds have gone to help people in need in other countries. John Crabtree, of Edgemont, SD, sold his collection to help feed orphans in the Ukraine. In 2016, VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC helped sell the Pinkly collection in the hills of the Ozarks. We were able to help bring the family needed money for their mother, from her years of a labor of love for her husband's hobby of muscle cars. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC has sold many rare cars from a Tata in the Hackenberger Collection in 2017 to a Kissel Gold Bug Speedster and many other Rare Brass Cars in the Quam Collection. Of course, the Lambrecht Collection Auction in 2013 in Nebraska. Yvette VanDerBrink, also understands personally how an auction works. "I've been on both sides. I've had an auction myself, so I understand all the emotions that are involved with selling your collection. I've also sold several close friends collections, and also my Dad's famous 1957 Chevrolet Collection in 2003. So I understand how important of a decision it is to have an auction and what is involved."

It doesn't matter if your collection is in many buildings, in a field, or a museum, VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC wants to work with you and your collection. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC wants to put our years of experience and excellent advertising to turn your assets into cash.

So plan now for your auction. We would be happy to work with you and your collection. Give us a call today to discuss your collection-auction.
