VanDerBrink Auctions uses all the tools in our tool chest to get the word out about your auction.

VanDerBrink Auctions uses a strong social media presence, print and digital marketing to promote your auction. Many of our auctions have been seen on national news, magazines, and TV. We develop a Press Release to boost news about the collection. VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC has been featured on several TV shows including the History Channel and Fox Business. We feel your auction should be more than an auction, but an event! Some collections let us write a story that tells the legacy of the collection and collector.

Yvette VanDerBrink says, "It's always fun to work with families to show them treasures that they have. There are so many people that don't realize what they have until often it's us, that's lets them know." One of these instances was the now infamous, Lambrecht Chevrolet auction in Pierce, NE in 2013. Yvette worked with the family, and what they thought was a "not a big deal" and became noted as the #3 Most Earth-Shattering Auction in the World. Over 20,000 people ventured to a soybean field in Nebraska for a chance to see New Chevrolet cars and trucks that had been squirreled away by Mr. Ray Lambrecht. It still is talked about among collectors to this day.

VanDerBrink Auctions in 2023, worked with many families to sell their collections. VanDerBrink Auctions saw strong prices on collector cars, Antique Tractors, Motorcycles, LAND in 2023. Several Thousand people flocked to Iowa for the Iowa Trans Am Hoard in Waverly, IA. Mr. Steely had nearly 75 Trans Ams and Firebirds along with hundreds of Trans Am parts hidden away and only to find light at auction sold by his Widow. Strong money for Pontiac Projects. The LangLitz Big Block Hoard in Idaho was featured in Hotrod Magazine and after his passing was sold in September 2023. Corvettes, Camaros, Chevelles, and 116 vehicles in total along with THOUSANDS of Chevrolet Big Block Parts. Thousands of people ventured to Roy's place from all over the US and beyond for a piece of this collection. Corvettes that had sat for 25 Years, Many projects, and more. A 1967 Corvette Stingray that hadn't started for 25 years sold for $231,000! A mystery 1970 Chevelle Project sold for $48,000 and the high prices continued all day. Many LS5, LS6 motors, 4 speed transmission, Big Block heads, and anything to build that Chevrolet Muscle was sold over 2 days. Vintage Motorcycles were strong and continues to be strong. The Sorenson Collection in Iowa gained National attention and 100 Plus units sold in September in 103 degree heat in Iowa. The Soneff Master Garage had Many MOPARS and more tucked away in building in Denver, Colo. And finally sold to avid collectors.

VanDerBrink Auctions also sold Several farms in Minnesota. Farmland is in High demand and VanDerBrink Auctions proved again that proper marketing brings the results. Auction is the best way to liquidate a collection and determine value. It's also the fastest way to turn your assets to cash. Any auction that is well advertised, with active bidding, online, onsite, or live, will bring what the market will show that day in time. I understand how important of a decision it is to have an auction and what is involved. "It doesn't matter if your collection is in a field, museum, or scattered on a farm hidden in buildings, VanDerBrink Auctions, LLC wants to with you and your collection. We want to work with you.
