

The Car Barn- The Jackson Collection Auction
“Everything is Bigger in Texas”

The only thing bigger than Texas, is your Dreams. For Mr. Jackson, growing up as a sandy land farm boy from Wheeler, Texas, in his mind, there wasn't anything that he couldn't do. He appreciated the lessons learned, value of hard work, faith in God, and that “Can Do” attitude. All this taught him that if he put his mind to it, there wasn't anything to hold him back. Just like any American boy, was the love of fast cars. He began building and racing cars at a young age and was well known by local High School boys and of course the local police for having the fastest cars around. Mr. Jackson saved his money and bought his first brand new car for $2400.00, a 1956 Chevrolet Bel Air 2dr HT. That was a trophy to his determination and start of his success.

As Mr. Jackson got older, he started his own business and was able to feed his need for speed and purchase car through the years. He shared his love of speed and cars with his 2 sons and helped them build their first race car which was an abandoned 1955 Chevy Bel Air they found in a field. Mr. Jackson loved telling stories about how they hauled it home and worked at night on the car in the garage. He would get a kick out of the fact they it may not have been the prettiest car around, but like him as a teenager, his son's here hard to beat in a race. It was sheer joy for Mr. Jackson teaching his boys how to work on the cars and perfect that winning spirit. He was never prouder than to see them building and working on automobiles.

As the years went by, Mr. Jackson built a successful family business with his sons. Through the years the business was run by his sons and grandchildren, but he never truly retired. Mr. Jackson went to the office every day, but his focus has changed to finding and buying “classic cars & trucks” like the ones he had owner previously through the years. What initially started as a small collection, turned into a collection of over 120 cars & trucks. Mr. Jackson was particularly fond of the Tri-Five Chevrolets and Impalas, and long wheel base trucks; because they were work trucks. He collected them in all conditions with something in mind for each one. He had plan to restore them, some for donors for other projects. The only problem was he collected them faster than anyone could fulfill his visions.

Unfortunately, Mr. Jackson passed away unexpectedly before he was able to finish all he had planned for his collection. Now, his family has decided to sell the collection to collectors that will appreciate and hopefully each new owner will see the potential in each car or truck that Mr. Jackson once did.
